Grand Knight's Message

Brother Knights and Families,

As the Fall season sets in, we need to reinvigorate our resolve to support our Churches and their various ministries. It is in October that we have our Fatima Rosary and Mass at The Oblates of St. Joseph on October 13th at 7:00 p.m. That same week we will be tending bar at the Siena House Dinner on the 15th. Thanks go out to our faithful brothers who offered help at the Holy Cross Festival on Sunday October 2nd. We had Jason Nielsen, Rudy Quijance, Carlos de Lara, Ken Lazier & Edwin Tonkin at the BBQ Pit.

October is the month we have our annual Columbian Foundation drive to help with the Intellectually Challenged folks. Larry Rothfuss can use some volunteers to help at the local churches, a great opportunity to serve without much effort.

We had a nice thank you letter from Fr. James Catalano OSJ for our $200 donation to the St. Vincent de Paul Church in Davenport. He said this year's fundraiser was the best they have ever had.

Please make it a priority to get to the October Social on the 26th. We need to support the faithful brothers who participate. If you would commit to one social by the end of the year we would feel your effort to support the Council.

As always we ask for your prayers for those Knights who are ill or family members needing prayers. Andrew Lenz Jr. keeps that list up to date and can add a name if you call him or send an e-mail.

Fraternally yours,
Doug Gallagher
Grand Knight

Chaplain's Message

The Mother of Jesus Was There

The month of October is dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary and we come again to speak and reflect on Our Mother as she entered into history, in Scripture and into our lives. In the Book of Genesis there is the Other Woman, who will help to rectify what Eve helped to destroy - the enmity, which she created, would be resolved by another Eve, Mary. This Second Woman shadows the Old Testament until she becomes real in the Gospel of Luke when the Angel Gabriel invites her to become the Mother of God in the Incarnation. I am the handmaid of the Lord. In the mysteries celebrated by the Rosary we see her presence implicit and explicit. If we look closely in the New Testament, we see her presence in the private and public life of Christ from the Annunciation to Pentecost - she is there in every phase of the life of Christ. The Mother of Jesus was present at the marriage feast of Cana, and the Mother of Jesus was there as she had been in Bethlehem, Egypt, Nazareth, in the public ministry of Jesus, at the foot of the Cross and with the gathering in the Cenacle before Pentecost. As she was present "there" she is also present "here".

The other adverb "here" is important as well. She is present now in her many apparitions down through the centuries. She is here now in the Month of May and in the Month of October. From our mothers we have come into contact with the Second Mother, Mary. She is found in the Book of Hours, in the Mass, in the Rosary and in the mind and heart of every Catholic. Saturday is dedicated especially to her. She is invoked by popes, bishops, priests, religious and lay folk. She intervenes with her Son for us. She is concerned in mind and heart for us. We are her other sons and daughters complementing her relationship with Jesus. So, just as she was "there", she is now "here" with us. Let us invoke her now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Many of you know that Bishop Richard Garcia is a fellow Knight and believes strongly in the mission of our order. He wrote this week to the parishioners of the Diocese of Monterey, asking for assistance "in the promotion of new members to join the local Councils of the Knights of Columbus." Let's step up and help with the promotion and drive for new members!

Also, next month, on Sat., Nov. 19, there will be a Second Degree exemplification at Ford Ord. If you are First Degree member who is interested in taking the Second Degree, please contact me.

Put Away the Rose-Colored Glasses by Thomas P. Smith Jr. (Executive Vice President) [abridged]

Football teams are trivial matters. A crooked view of life through my rose-colored glasses on that topic doesn't hurt me much. But sometimes those glasses are big trouble.

You're feeling good, you're looking good, you're loving life, and you have so many other, more important things to do with your hard earned cash. The only time you really think about life insurance, really, is when we call you. And for a brief second when that call comes in, or when you're reading this column, or when you see your agent, you say to yourself: you know, I really need to take care of that. But then the glasses come out, slide over that nose, and suddenly, tomorrow is a better option than today.

In the end, thinking that the Dallas Cowboys are going to go 16-0 and win the Super Bowl every year is foolish, but not dangerous. Thinking that you have an unlimited supply of tomorrows to make a decision on securing the future for your wife and children and grandchildren is both foolish and dangerous.

Put away the glasses (temporarily) and talk with your agent. We'll make your life really rosy.
